

How important are the following targets in your vision for the Comox Valley agrifood sector in the future?

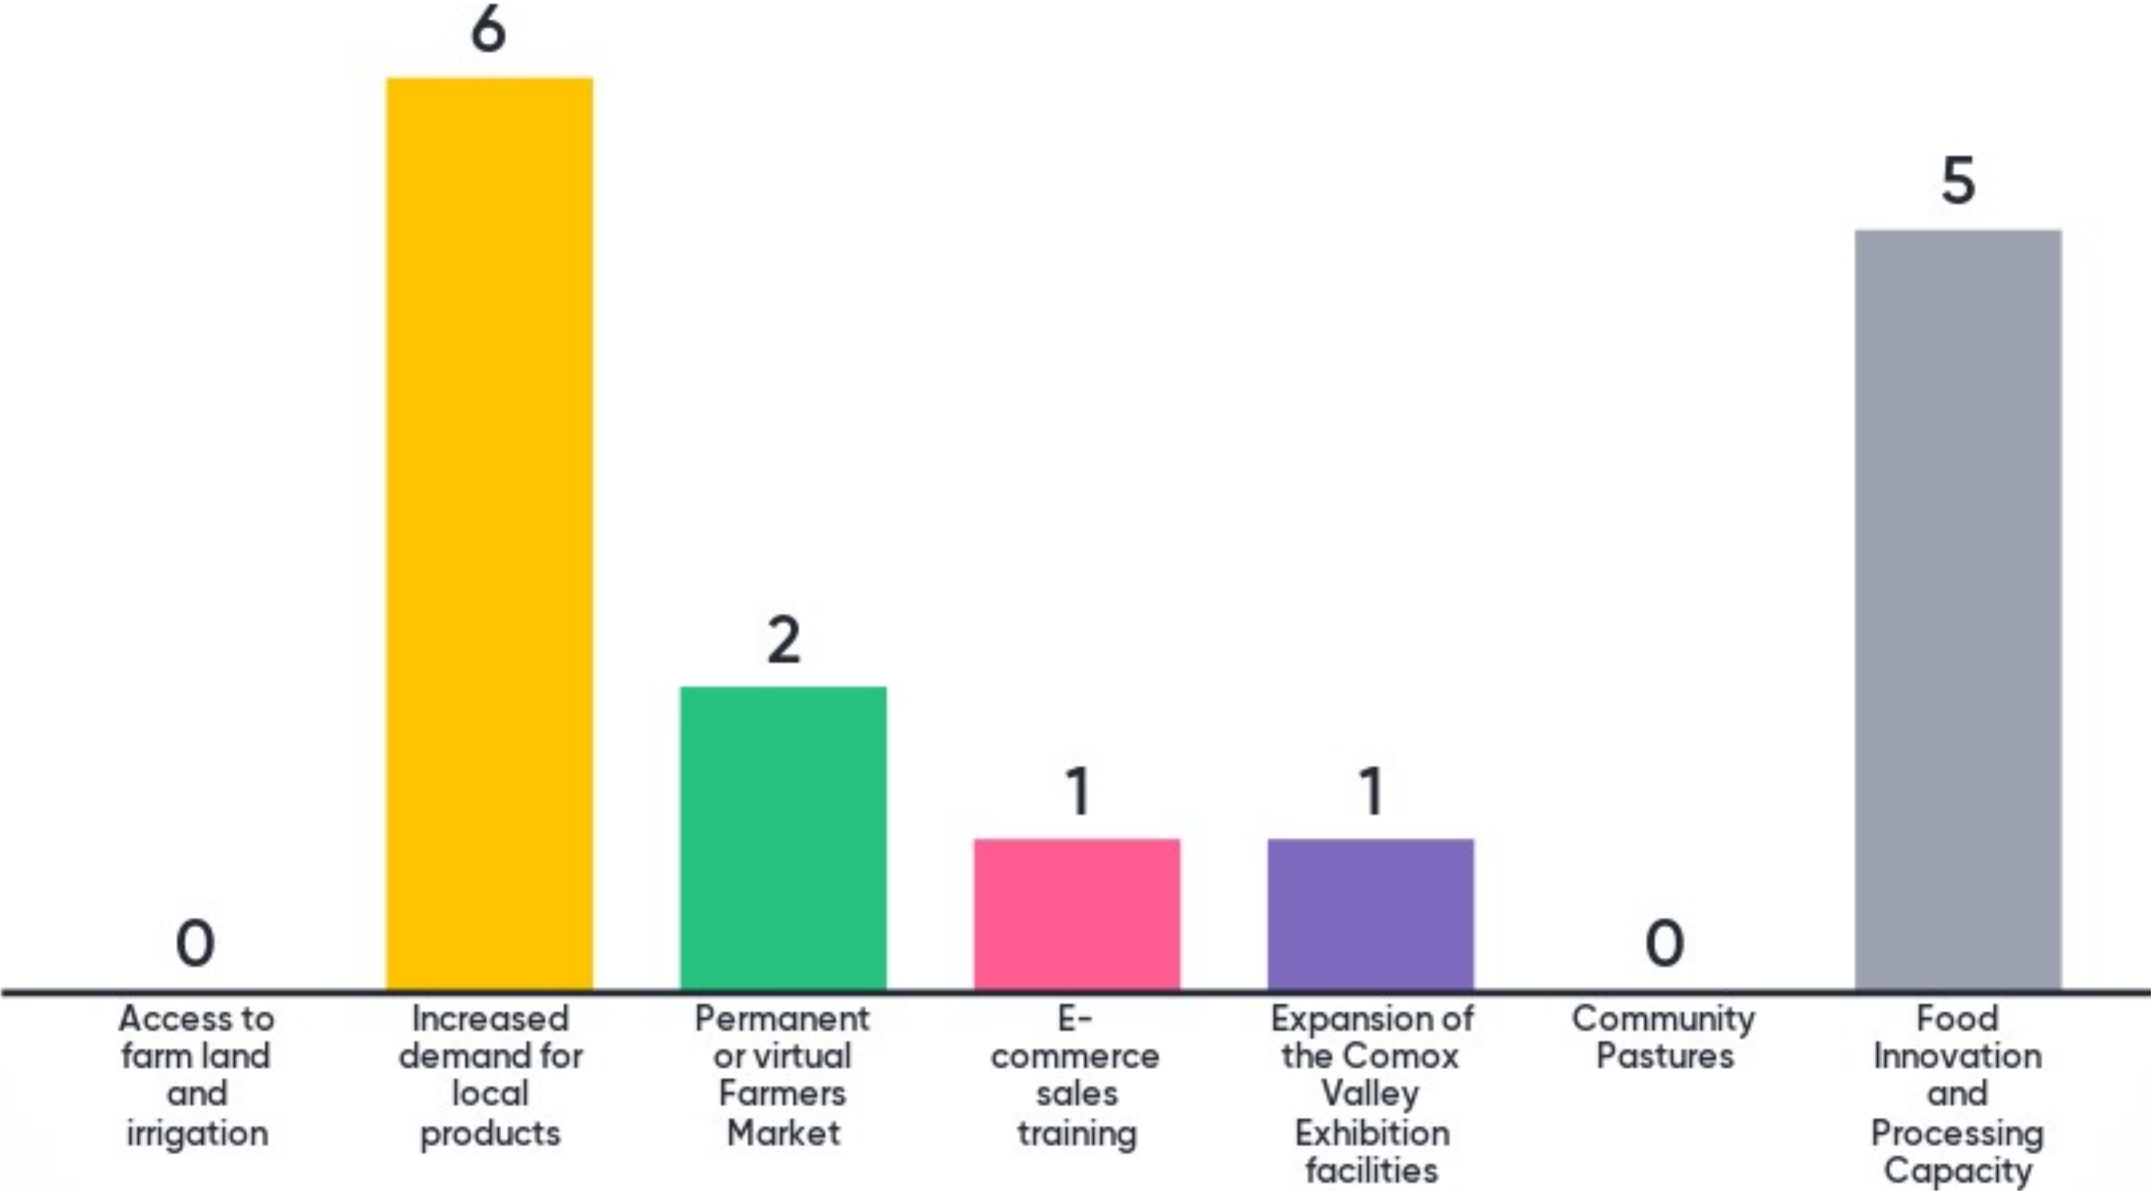

How Important will advances in innovation and technology be for the following :

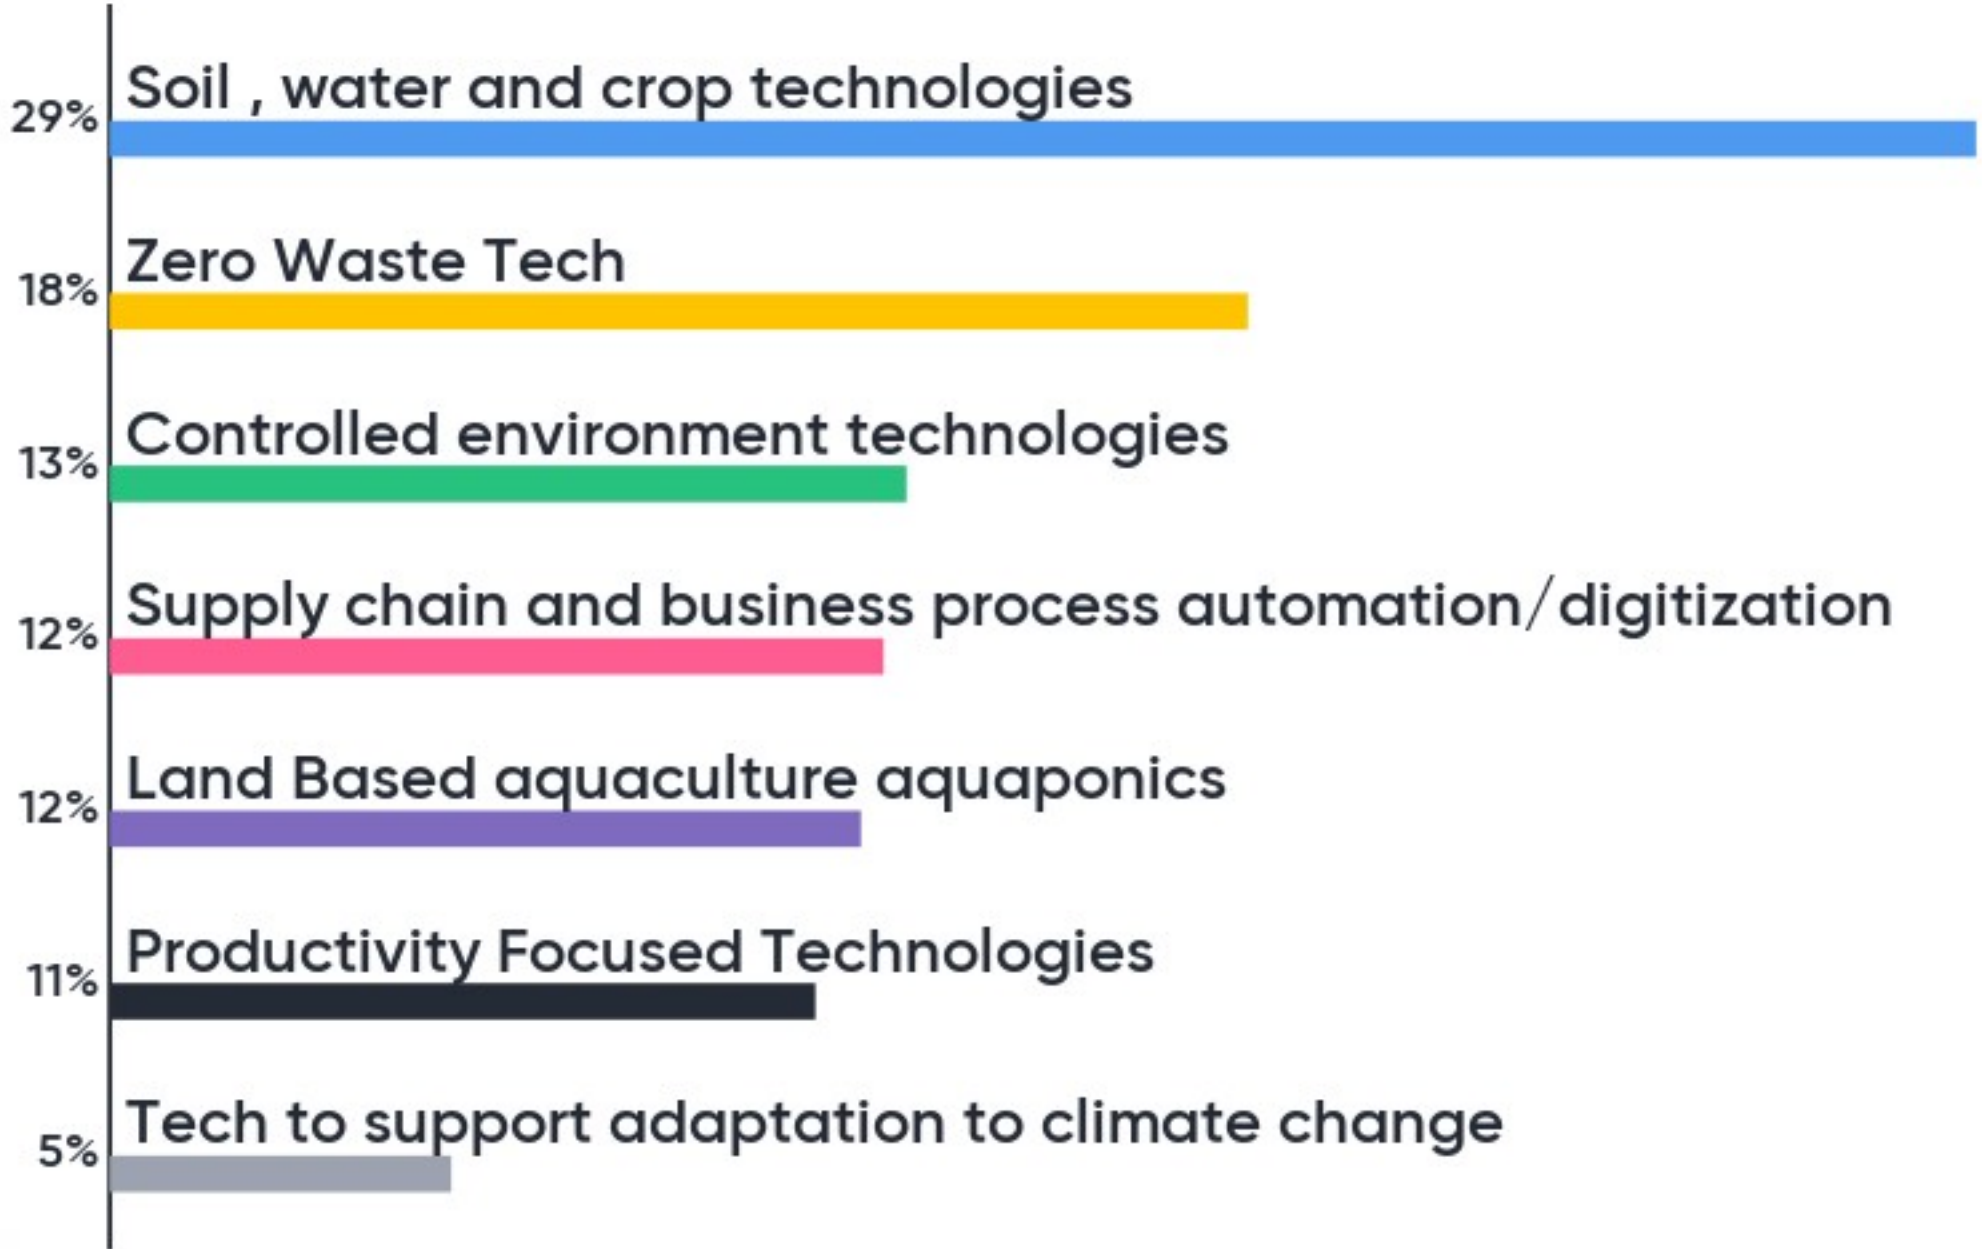

How critical are the following factors in preparing the Comox Valley for the future of farming in 2030

How Important are the following initiatives to the future of the agrifood , beverage and seafood sectors future success

What is the most important food innovation trend to consider during the Innovate 2030 strategy process

Where is the highest potential to create new sustainable opportunities for growth and Investment

