

What is the biggest challenge to your business as it relates to labour ?

How likely would you be to use the Immigration Branch services for the following ?

Who needs to be involved in addressing labour force challenges ?

Food industry associations

Employers

Education Institutions

Economic development center and immigration departments

Immigration department of the gov. Training and education. Community economic development agencies.

High schools, colleges, youth advisors, all levels of government, employers, industry organizations, people doing the jobs now = mentoring / succession planning.

Education intuitions

All major areas involved with recruitment

Collaboration of business and governments

